Hey! I'M MARIANA.

Hi! I'm Mariana, an Argentinian photographer based in Guanacaste, Costa Rica for the past 12 years. I'm obsessed with beaches, nature, and real moments — not stiff poses.

I specialize in capturing couples and families on vacation in the most authentic way, always using the best light and local hidden spots only insiders know.

With 200+ five-star reviews, families consistently choose me for my quality and the natural connection I build with kids — making sessions feel easy, fun, and zero stress for everyone.

I keep things natural, fun, and carefree. Whether we're chasing golden sunset light or exploring stunning landscapes and towns, the vibe is always easy and relaxed — no awkward posing, no pressure.

My approach is spontaneous and authentic, so you can just be present while I capture the real moments. Simple, stress-free, and actually fun — the way memories should be made.

LET'S GET INTO IT!

MY philosophy

Every family has a story worth telling. I'm here to capture yours — naturally, beautifully, and without the fuss.

MY mantra

Every session is a full experience thoughtfully planned, effortlessly executed, and tailored entirely to you.

WHAT TO expect

I specialize in capturing people exactly as they are — at ease, connected, and completely themselves. No direction that feels forced, no moments that feel staged.

If the kids are restless or nerves kick in, that's perfectly fine. I know how to read the room, set the tone, and turn any situation into something beautifully real.

With editorial and documentary experience across India, Spain, Mexico, and Argentina — and clients who fly me to destinations worldwide — I bring a level of craft and intentionality to every session.

Light is at the heart of everything I do. Golden hour is my specialty, and I shoot exclusively with professional, high-end gear — because the moments we capture together deserve to last a lifetime.

THE EXPERIENCE, TOLD BY

Families

She captured not only beautiful photos of our family, but somehow captured what it feels like to be a family. Just beautiful, genuine moments. When asked the top three things about our Costa Rica vacation, my daughter said one of them was the photo shoot with Mariana.

Mariana immediately made everyone feel comfortable — especially my child — which made the entire experience feel natural and fun. Her work is truly stunning. It genuinely felt like we made a new friend during the shoot. I will treasure these photos forever.

We were blown away with the entire experience. Mariana is organized, artistic, and efficient — and she captured so many special moments of our family of 14. I just wish we lived close so we could do new photos every year.

FAQ's

Absolutely. Most people feel a little awkward in front of the camera — that's completely normal, and honestly, part of my job is making you forget it's even there. My approach is relaxed and candid, with gentle direction only when needed. You'll be surprised how natural the photos feel.

02 DO YOU TRAVEL?

Yes! I love exploring Costa Rica and shooting beyond its borders. Families have flown me to the US, Canada, Aruba, Mexico, and more. Travel fees apply depending on the location — just reach out and we'll figure it out together.

03 CAN I PURCHASE AN ALBUM AFTER THE PHOTOSHOOT?

Of course! Albums can be ordered any time after your session — many clients love gifting them at Christmas or on anniversaries. I also offer prints in any size, so your favorite moments can live on your walls exactly as you imagine them.
