what's up?

I'M MARIANA.

Greetings! My name is Mariana, and I am a passionate Argentinian photographer who revels in traveling, exploring the beach, and immersing myself in nature.

My love for travel, the beach, and nature has led me on many adventures around the world, but for the past ten years, I've called Guanacaste, Costa Rica my home.

As a professional photographer, I am privileged to capture the magical moments that couples and families experience on vacations. Being a local, I have discovered secret spots that only locals know about, which enables me to provide you with the most authentic and memorable experience.

I pride myself on keeping things natural, fun, and carefree. Whether we are chasing the perfect sunset or exploring beautiful landscapes and cities, I guarantee that we will have a blast together. So, let's embark on an unforgettable journey and capture beautiful memories that will last a lifetime!

My approach to photography is natural, spontaneous, and carefree, so you can expect a fun and stress-free time.

LET'S GET INTO IT!

MY philosophy

The fire of each one is irreplaceable, That's my philosophy I want you to be yourself and I will demonstrate it through my lens.

MY mantra

Is not about just snapping photos; I’m crafting an entire experience. Your vision is my top priority, and I'm here to make it come to life in the most amazing way possible.

WHAT TO expect

I put myself in your shoes, if I'm looking for a photographer, I want him or her to be creative, to show who I am in a natural environment through images, to make me feel comfortable and reflect my personality. My friends know me as a "master problem solver", so there is nothing to worry about, you're safe!

If you and your partner feel a little camera-shy or unsure about posing, don’t worry—I’ve got you covered! I know how to create a relaxed and fun atmosphere that lets your true connection shine. Some of the most meaningful moments happen when you're simply being yourselves, and I’ll be there to capture those candid, unplanned memories beautifully!

My background is not just couples and weddings, I shoot documental photography in India, commercial and editorial photography in Spain, Mexico and Argentina and right now I'm proud to say that couples fly me around the globe. Lately I've been shooting in US, Canada, Aruba and Mexico.

FAQ's

Absolutely. Most people feel a little awkward in front of the camera — that's completely normal, and honestly, part of my job is making you forget it's even there. My approach is relaxed and candid, with gentle direction only when needed. You'll be surprised how natural the photos feel.

02 DO YOU TRAVEL?

Yes! I love exploring Costa Rica and shooting beyond its borders. Families have flown me to the US, Canada, Aruba, Mexico, and more. Travel fees apply depending on the location — just reach out and we'll figure it out together.

03 CAN I PURCHASE AN ALBUM AFTER THE PHOTOSHOOT?

Of course! Albums can be ordered any time after your session — many clients love gifting them at Christmas or on anniversaries. I also offer prints in any size, so your favorite moments can live on your walls exactly as you imagine them.
